The great end of education is, to discipline rather than to furnish the mind; to train it to the use of its own powers, rather than fill it with the accumulations of others.

Beloit High School

Beloit, Kansas

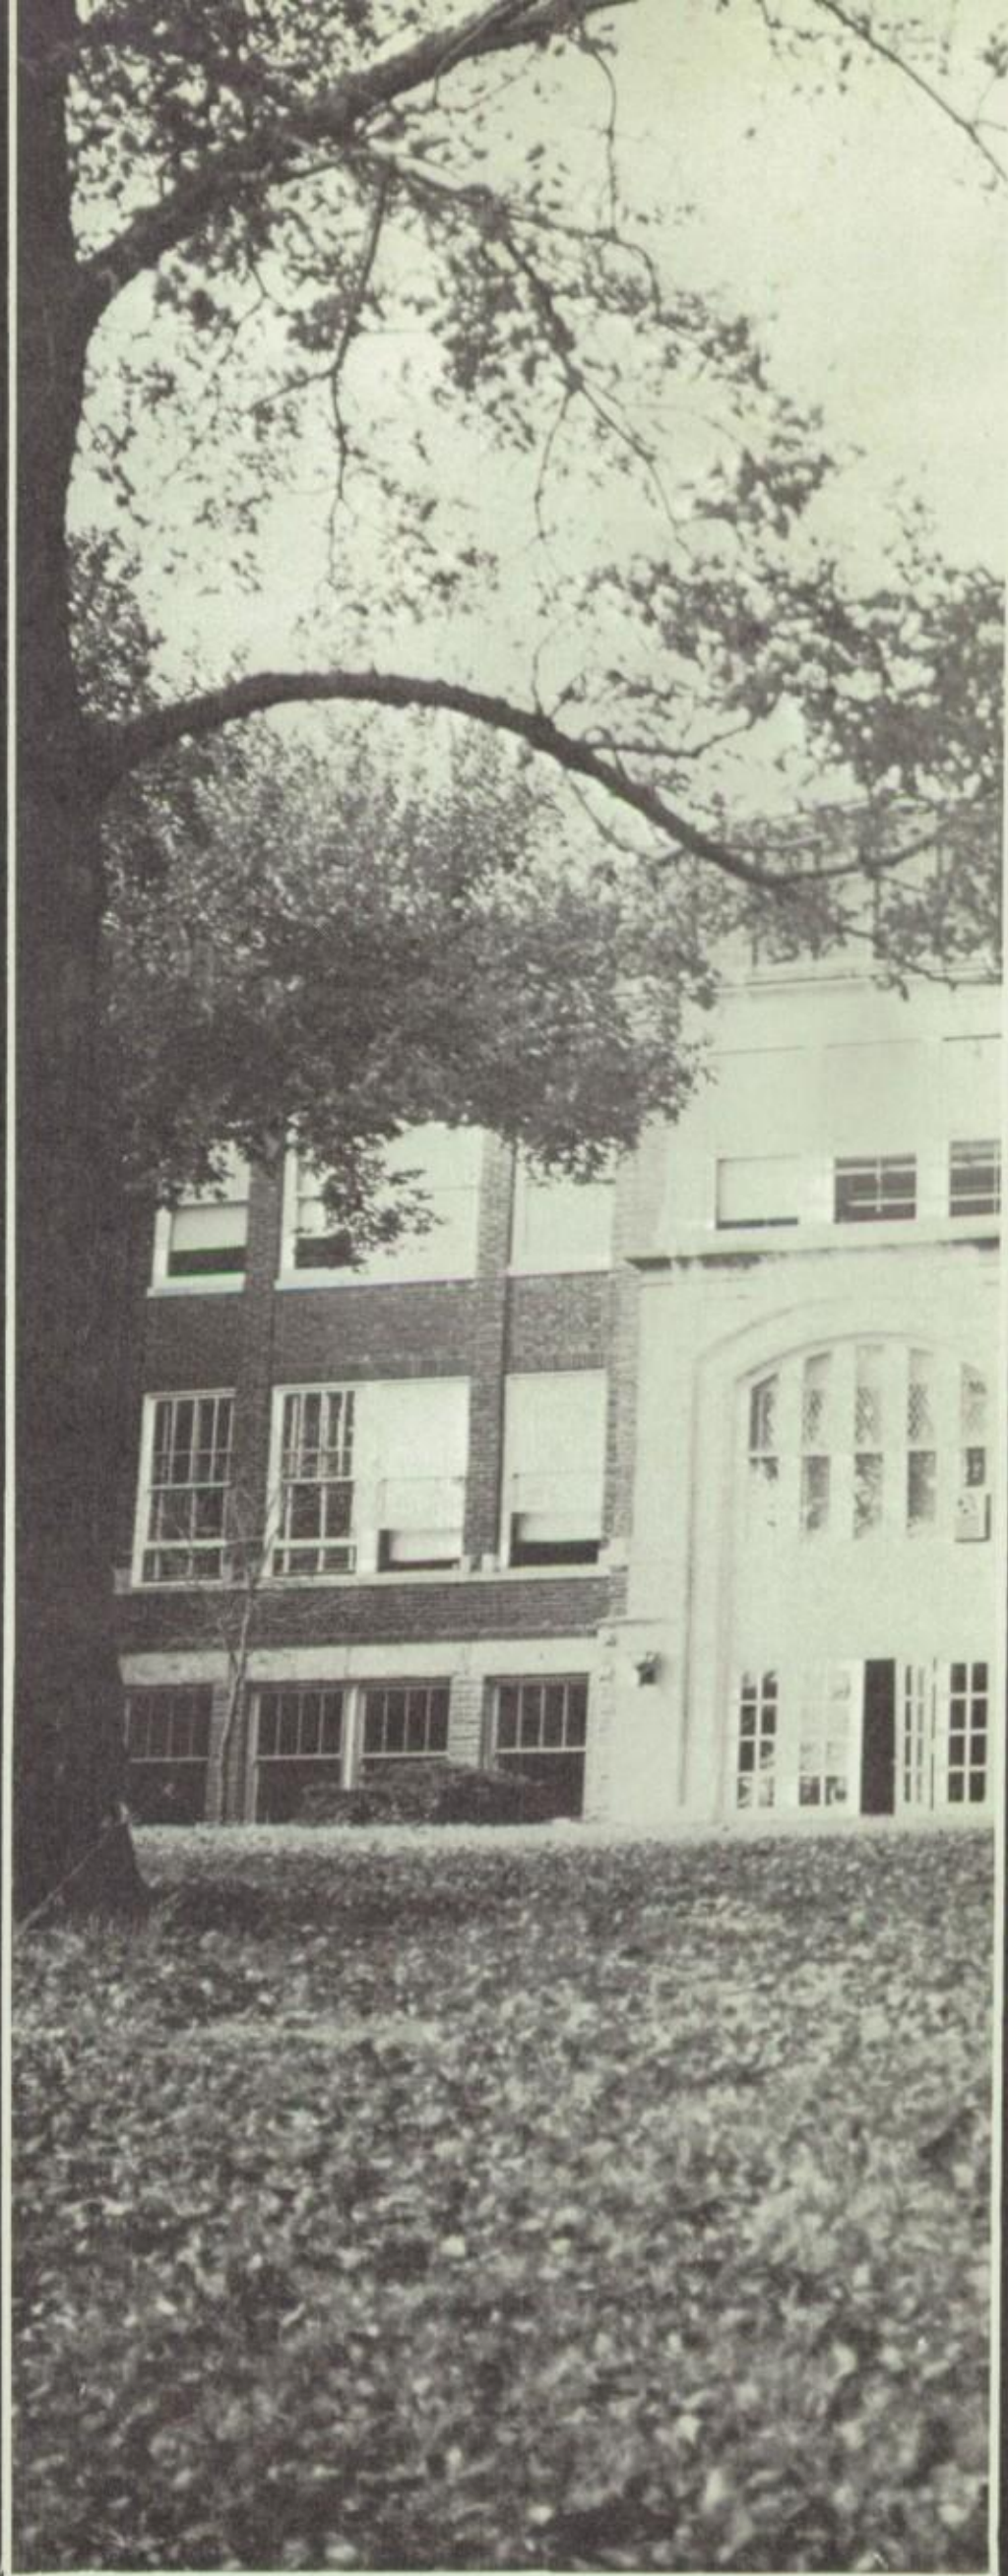

The picnic table is empty and the parking lot is full. The halls, silent through the summer, resound with life. Excitement begins as 270 students greet old friends and welcome new ones. After eleven years, Seniors now have but nine short months to wait for their diplomas.

BACK ROW: Mr. Rex Quakenbush, Rex's T.V., Mr. Clyde Lampert, Treasurer, First National Bank; Mr. Robert Pearson, Assistant Manager in Charge of Propane, Gas, and Oil Division, Mitchell County Cooperative Association; Mr. Robert Ingram, Beloit Post Office. SITTING, LEFT TO RIGHT: Mr. Dean Haddock, Vice-President, Guaranty State Bank; Mrs. Don Vetter, Clerk, Secretary to the Superintendent; Mr. Maurice McDonald, President, McDonald Funeral Home; Mr. Ben Spatz, Spatz Grocery.

SUPERINTENDENT:

Mr. E. M. Chestnut, a cornerstone of Beloit High, has been Superintendent for the past five years, Principal the preceding twenty-eight years, and a teacher for forty-two years.

He received his A.B. from Kansas University and his M.S. degree from Kansas State University.

Mr. Chestnut is Superintendent over the High School, the Jr. High, and the Elementary School. These schools together have approximately eight-hundred-fifty students and a faculty of forty-three.

There have been quite a few improvements in the Beloit school system this year. One has been the improvement of instruction, with the elementary adding new first and fourth teachers.

The guidance program in the high school, and the art program in all the city schools have been well established in the past three years. This year a closed circuit TV was added for the first and second grade art students as an experiment.

Mr. Chestnut believes that it is necessary to consider the needs, interests, and abilities of each student and adapt the educational program accordingly; thus challenging the brighter students without slighting the slower ones.

PRINCIPAL:

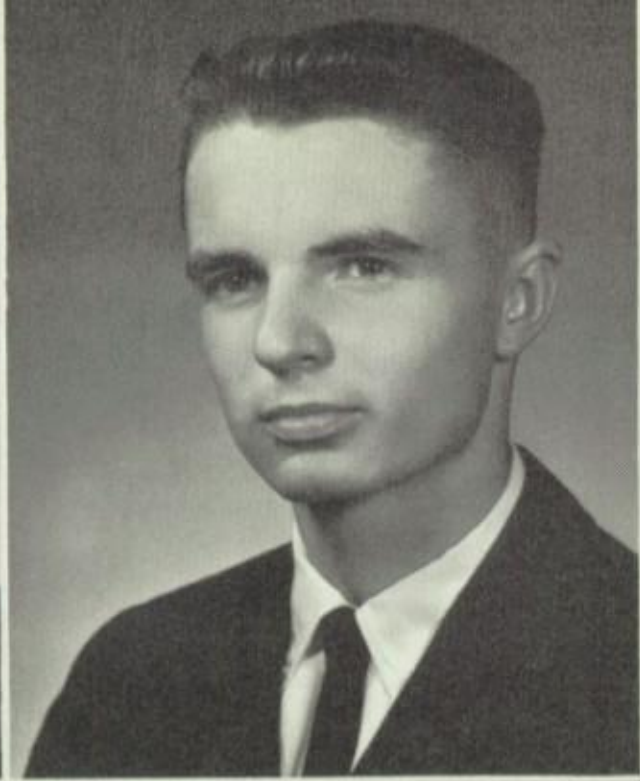

The principal of Beloit High School must have many good qualities. One may take Mr. Robert Harrison as a good example of what a principal should be. Above all, Mr. Harrison is conscientious about Beloit High. He wants the school to come out ahead in every area of competition, but most important, he strives to provide the very best education for each individual student.

The huge task of enrollment and scheduling is the duty of Mr. Harrison and his helpers. Difficult and tiring as it may be, he still remains patient with some of the most indecisive students.

A high school always has its discipline problems. Mr. Harrison manages to maintain order while still remaining respected by the student body.

As principal of Beloit High, he is constantly busy. However, no matter how rushed he is, he will always take time to hear the views of his teachers and students. He is capably assisted by his secretary, Mrs. Ruth Guard.

brilliant success

With a brilliant and exciting production of the screenplay, "Rebel Without a Cause," from a story by Nicholas Ray, the senior class presented their last play for Beloit audiences. The class broke all records of ticket sales with their well planned promotion. The play was effectively staged against a curtain background using only a few props to stimulate the imagination of the audience. The group transformed the blacked-out stage into a tri-setting as a balcony spotlight swung from one scene to another. This difficult staging required much planning and practice by the excellent stage crew headed by Leon Schneider. Mike Wagner, handling the spotlight, also did a marvelous job to help swing the action from one scene to another with no interruption in the thread of the action. A very important part of the play was the sound effects, and these were ably handled by Max Remley. All these ingredients, plus a choice cast, an excellent director Mr. Terry Duntz, and much behind-the-scenes assistance, added up to make a successful Senior Play which still has much of its audience astir.

The Students of Science

Science Club had a very successful year under the leadership of John Young and the guidance of Mr. Schwemmer.

Among the programs presented at the meetings were: The Effect of Ultraviolet Light on Minerals; The Operation of the Slide Rule; The Basic Principles of the Van deGraff Generator; Some Interesting Facts and Properties of the Gyroscope; and Problem Solution by the School's Analog and Digital Computers.

These programs were presented by members of the Club as well as authorities in the specific fields. The programs were both entertainment and a further knowledge of various fields of science.

FTA

The 1962-63 year has been a very successful one for the Beloit Future Teacher members of the Grace Heltzel chapter. The older members were very pleased to see so many new freshman members and older students joining FTA for the first time. There were nearly twenty members. Some of the FTA members were guests of the BCTA early in the fall, and they enjoyed a panel discussion on the pleasures of teaching. This panel consisted of teachers of different ages and experiences and a future teacher. In November a large number of members went to the Kansas Future Teachers Association's meeting in Salina. The Kansas Future Teachers Association was held in Manhattan for two days at the Student Union in March, with these members attending; Ginny Studt, Carol Pearson, Nancy Richards, Sheila Spatz, Cheryl Chapman, and Calita Daugherty, sponsored by Mr. Harrison. A new FTA Handbook was presented to each member attending, which had been prepared by a select committee of KFTA members. Our president Ginny Studt, was on this committee.

The wind changes its direction, the thermometer falls, and a soft quiet stillness settles over the ground. Activities, except for a few ephemeral outings, retreat to the warm and comfortable indoors. Icicles, stately hanging from the eaves, reflect multi-color scenes from parties and basketball games. In the gray morning the school takes on a glow of trees and lights. Vacation comes and is lost in the maddening rush of Christmas and the New Year. A new year is at hand, but outward signs are few. This seems the time that everyone joins in the fellowship and gaiety.

"Won't you people please discuss this?"

"Sorry, I didn't get the agendas up."

The Student Council carried out their annual project of providing Christmas food baskets to families in our community, and sending clothing to needy children in our country. The FFA contributed three of the food baskets.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Beloit High Student Council had another busy year carrying out numerous activities, and initiating many new ones. Stuco carried out traditional affairs such as football, basketball, and track homecomings, the Student Council Conference, Boy and Girl of the Month Honors, Dress-Up Days for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and conducting the lyceum programs.

New plans put into action this year were the use of panels to discuss problems, rules by which organization officers should be elected, a suggestion box placed in the hall, and a column of BHS activities put in the daily paper. Stuco also sponsored a project through the Pupil-to-Pupil Program, Inc. by which 220 composition books containing the names of BHS pupils donating 50¢ to the program were sent to students in India. A long-term project launched this year is obtaining a flag from each of the countries from which we receive a foreign student, framing the flag and hanging it in our library.

Queen Julie Waddell and her attendants, Betty Guard and Sygni Heller, reigned over the Basketball Homecoming Dance.

Student Council elections were held May 2. Those running for the office of secretary were Marieta Scoggan and Nancy Richards, and for president, Larry McDonald and Calita Daugherty. Larry and Marieta will be next year's Student Council leaders.

Mary Nelson was crowned Track Queen at the Beloit Relays Dance. Sue Dockstader and Ione Melton were her attendants.

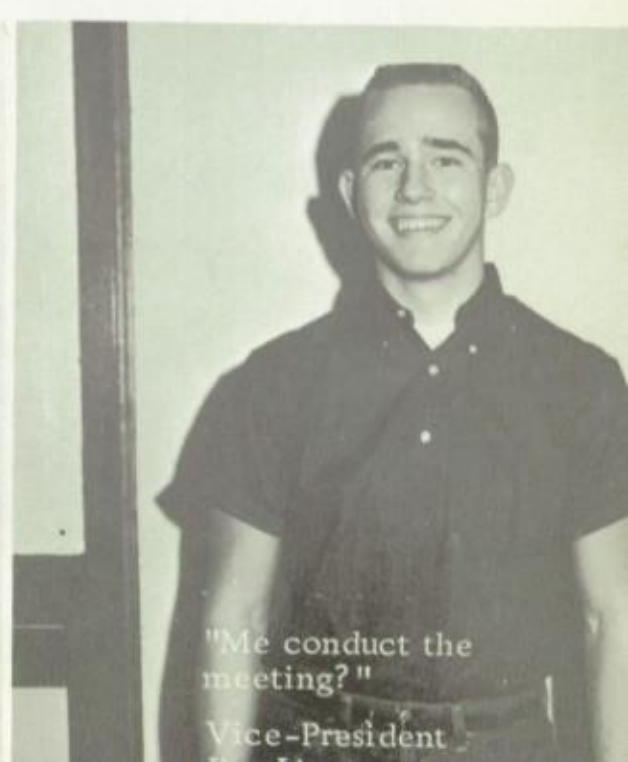

The Student Council initiated a plan of having panels to discuss important problems before the student body. This panel was to inform the students of the advantages and dis-advantages of having a track queen.

The Hi-Y Club, to which nearly all boys in school belong, provided excellent entertainment and guidance for the boys of Beloit High. Activities and projects, in addition to regular meetings, included a watermelon feed and donations to the AFS Chapter. A Father-Son Banquet was presented and five boys were sent to the Model Legislature at Topeka. These activities were paid for with the money raised from the popcorn sales and the donations given during the fund raising drive.

Although the Hi-Y boys thought the parade was "tomorrow" they still came up with the second place float of the Homecoming parade.

The underclassmen were introduced to the Hi-Y with a watermelon feed early in September.

On November 3, 1962, the FFA held its annual Barnwarmer party. The evening started with a hay rack ride, beginning at the high school and ending at the 4-H building at the fair grounds. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe Meats were there to get the kids warm with some square dances. After square dancing, several games were played, and three contests held among the queen candidates, Judy Way, Ione Melton, and Donna Mehl. First, the candidates sawed a board into halves. This was won by Judy Way. Then, Ione was the first to succeed in hammering the two boards together in a T. In the tool identification contest, Donna guessed the most correctly. The queen, Donna Mehl, was then crowned by FFA President, Ron Jordan, and she was presented with a box of candy and a travel alarm clock. Her attendants, Judy and Ione, also received boxes of candy. Refreshments were served, and the remainder of the evening was spent dancing.

The queen was invited to the annual Parent-Son Banquet as a special guest, and was presented a rose corsage.

Mr. Baugher had many wise words to say, and presented numerous awards at the annual Parent-Son Banquet.

hit another high note

in a successful year. Under the direction of Mr. LeWallace Howe, the marching band made its first public appearance at Hays on September 29, and was awarded a I rating.

The Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Cleo Riley, played for both the junior and senior plays. At the Spring Concert, the orchestra and chorus combined for "Battle Hymn of the Republic." This inspiring number aroused the patriotic spirit of the audience. The orchestra made its last appearance at the Senior Commencement.

On January 24, the band attended NCKL Band Clinic at Smith Center. February 5, the band made a tour to play for three of our neighboring towns, Barnard, Hunter, and Simpson.

The band and orchestra participated in the District Music Festival at Concordia on April 5, with the band receiving a II, and the orchestra a I. Individual ratings of groups and students are listed under pictures. Those not pictured are as follows: String Quintet, II; Sax Quartet, II; L. McDonald, I, II at state; C. Chapman, I, II at state.

Fifth hour practice proved rewarding for the mixed chorus when it received a I at district.

The BELOIT HIGH CHORUS, under the direction of Miss Elsie Gaston,

The chorus individuals and their ratings were: Jim Pohlhammer I, Ginny Studt I, Cheryl Chapman I, Virginia Bohning I, Marieta Scoggan II, and Roberta Blanding II.

The groups and individuals that received a "one" rating at district were entitled to go to state. At state, the chorus also faired very well. The ratings were: Double Sextet and Jim Pohlhammer I; Ginny Studt, Virginia Bohning, Sextet, Mixed Ensemble, and Cheryl Chapman II.

The Spring Concert, held on the evening of May 10, was the climax for this year's chorus.

Now get that room cleaned up.

But it was an act of God, the wind took it.

Hey, you did a real good job tonight.

JUNIORS PRESENT

CLEMENTINE

TERRY DUNTZ--DIRECTOR

It is not easy for teenagers to adjust to mature ideas. This was portrayed to us in Clementine. We find that we, as human beings, can be told things that are better for us; but many of us cannot realize this until we see it first hand for ourselves. However, with a little bit of parental understanding, growing up usually works out; all of this was seen in our play "Clementine".

HAWAIIAN CRUISE

Saturday, May 4, at 7 p.m., the Beloit Juniors presented a banquet for the Seniors. The theme for the banquet was Hawaiian Cruise. The banquet began with a wonderful Swiss steak dinner served by the Y-Teen Helpers. The program consisted of: a medley by a Sextet, a song by The Four Surfers, a humorous reading presented by Sheila Spatz and the Hula was danced by the Hawaiian Aloha's. Our guest speaker, Mr. Davis, gave us some thoughts for the future. After the evenings entertainment, we danced to the music of the Smith Center dance band.

We all enjoyed the banquet very much, and we are sure that all those attending had an enjoyable evening.

TROJANS TAKE LEAGUE and RELAYS

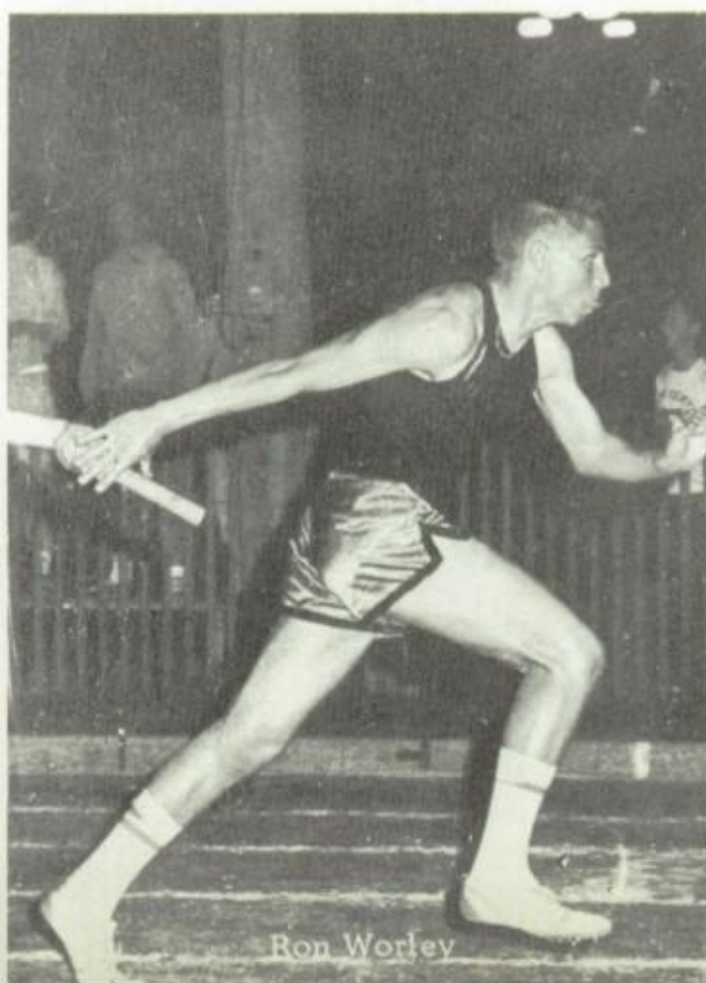

The Trojan thin-clads did a tremendous job this year by taking both the Beloit Relays and the N.C.K.L. track meet. In the N.C.K.L. meet, Beloit out-distanced the second place team, Concordia, 62-49.

Outstanding track men this year were, holding new school records: Kenny White shot-put, 50 feet 5 3/4 inches, discus, 146 feet 9 1/2 inches; Roger Thompson, javelin, 185 feet 9 inches; and Jerry Harrison, high jump, 6 feet 1/2 inches.

The Relays queen this year was Mary Nelson, and at the end of the season, Roger Thompson and Leon Schneider were chosen track co-captains.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

has been very busy this year. We took pictures, prepared, corrected, edited, and sold this year's annual. Beloit was the host of a conference for yearbook staff members from neighboring schools on September 27.

By working on the yearbook staff, we learned to budget our time and money, learned to cooperate with others, and developed initiative and awareness of our school's life.

FLOR'S BUBBLING PERSONALITY ENLIGHTENS HALLS OF TROY

Our foreign exchange student, Flor Del Carmen Vergara, arrived Sept. 4, 1962, after an ocean voyage from Talca, Chile. She came to make our year, as well as her's, at B.H.S. both successful and enjoyable. Flor, with her cheerful ways and gay smile, has been a beacon to all students and teachers. Flor has been very active in school activities. She has participated in Pep Club, Y-Teens, Art Club, and Student Council. She was elected girl of the month for May. Also, Flor has been on second honor roll for the year. While in Beloit Flor has made her home with the Everett Mastins. The Mastins stated that "Flor has been a real joy to us with her happy disposition. She has really added sunshine to our home."
